Finest spectacles at Martin's.
Read the "ad" of Sara & Me.
The Rosine school closes Saturday.
Mr. S. A. Williams is improving.
Don't fail to see Carson & Morton during Xmas.
Oh! the nice things at Williams, Bell & Co's.
Mr. Archie Cain has been sick several days this week.

For watch, clock and jewelry repairing, call on C. R. Martin.

Mr. John P. Coleman is rapidly improving from his recent illness.

Be sure and read the "ad" of Martin & Smith the Owensboro furniture men.

Why look all over the county when you can find what you want at Kahn's.

Rev. Steersman is holding a very successful revival with Slaty Creek Baptist church.

If you want to enjoy yourself for awhile, call to see Williams, Bell & Co's. Holiday Goods.

If you want a handsome watch chain, watch charm or a good watch, call on C. R. Martin.

The largest stock, in the Green River country, of Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps at Kahn's.

Special attention will be given by Carson & Morton in the preparation of fruit baskets during the holidays.

We have only a few fine Overcoats left, you can buy them this week at your own price. M. M. KAHN.

Carson & Morton are going to be prepared to supply everybody with fresh fruits, fancy candies, etc., during Xmas.

If you want any special goods in jewelry line for Christmas, give order to C. R. Martin by next day.

Mr. & Mrs. Cain are always prepared willing to give you a nice hair trim or easy shave. Call once and you will call again.

Something wonderful to see the big stock of clothing represented at a Trade Palace.
M. M. KAHN, Prop.

Mrs. J. R. Phipps is ill.
Casebier's bus meets all trains.
Circuit Court adjourned yesterday evening.

For fresh oysters go to G. L. Klein & Co.
Still more new goods coming in at the Bazaar.

The best rigs at C. L. Field still and be convinced.

Mr. W. P. Rander who has la grippe is improving.

Give C. L. Field's a call when you want to go to Beaver Dam.

Don't fail to call on Williams, Bell & Co. for your holiday gifts.

Remember that C. L. Field has never failed to meet the daily trains.

You can get the very best of meals at the Hartford House for only 25 cents.

Remember you will get the best returns for your money by dealing with J. M. Casebier.

Good rigs good drivers and a more accommodating man can not be found any where than C. L. Field's.

Remember when you come to town that Casebier has the best of corn and hay, and will take the best of care of stock left in his charge.

Jolly Jim Casebier will treat you right. Let him take care of your horse when you come to town and you will be convinced.

"Sara & Me" seem to be enjoying a fine Christmas trade. They hint at an extra surprise for next Wednesday and Thursday.

"Who is the best liverman in Hartford?" asked one traveling man of another. "J. M. Casebier, because he has the best feed gives the best and fastest transfers."

What more useful Christmas present can you buy your boy than a suit of clothes or Overcoat, come and see them, name your price and take them home at Kahn's.

Finger Rings, Ear-drops, Scarf Pins, Cuff Buttons, Collar Buttons, Breast Pins, Lace Pins, Mourning Pins and almost anything you need in the jewelry line at C. R. Martin's.

The oyster supper at the Masonic Hall, Beaver Dam, on Saturday night Dec. 20th, will be a most enjoyable affair. No pains will be spared to make it a grand time for all who attend. Let every body come.

What is the use to give prices in the paper, when you can buy the week before Xmas, fine suits, Overcoats, Hats, Boots and Shoes at your own price, at the Trade Palace.
M. M. KAHN.

Read Fair Bros. & Co's "ad."
See G. L. Klein & Co. for all kinds of fancy Christmas notions.

Santa Claus' finest Christmas presents will be found in abundance at G. L. Klein & Co's.

When you want to go to Beaver Dam be sure and leave your orders with Casebier & Son.

For fancy candies and dainties Santa Claus will hold his headquarters at G. L. Klein & Co's.

County Attorney, R. S. Todd, and J. V. Small, of Daviess county, are stopping at the Hartford House. They know their old friends, S. B. Howard and wife, and could trust them for good grub.

The case of the Commonwealth against John Franks for breaking into a store, near McHenry, came up yesterday evening before Judge Morton. Franks waived examining trial and was held under a $200 bond to appear before the Circuit Court.

It will be very gratifying to the many friends of Mr. H. C. Duval, of Big Clifty, who fell from a gang-plank at Eastview a few weeks ago and broke his leg, to know that he is rapidly improving, and will soon be able to be out again.

Mr. J. Will Tompkins, of Owensboro, and Miss Lucy Morton, of Sulphur Springs, were married at the First Baptist Church, Owensboro, on Tuesday night. It was a most brilliant social happening that joined the loving hearts of two young people whose future is most auspicious.

Mr. Wilbur T. Hayward, the genial young attorney, will, on the 30th of this month, be married to Miss Madeline Etheridge. Mr. Hayward is a prosperous and popular young attorney of the Hartford bar. Miss Etheridge has many friends here who will gladly welcome her again in their midst.

A Mistake Corrected.
I will not be scattered around, as rumor says, but will be at L. B. Beans next Thursday and will make Headquarters there during the Holidays, will have a nice present for everybody come and see me.

Respectfully,
S. CLAUS.

An Unthankful Thief.

On Monday evening a stranger presented himself at the home of Mr. J. E. Coleman, living on the Townsland farm, one mile from town, and asked for lodging over night. This was granted, but what was Mr. Coleman's surprise on Tuesday morning to find the stranger gone, together with a new suit of clothes, a watch, some money, a barlow knife and razor. Mr. Coleman came to town at once, and he and Deputy Sheriff Johnson gave chase to the clever thief. They were soon on his trail, but somewhere on the Owensboro road he took to the woods and the pursuit had to be abandoned. He was a tall, fair-skinned, young German, with a rich brogue. He weighed about one hundred and sixty-five pounds. He will doubtless be captured during this week.

Domestic Troubles.

A very unfortunate affair occurred near Beas last Friday. Mr. Anne Shown, a well-to-do, but high-tempered, farmer, took a pair of shoes home to his wife, who, in a spirit of fun, twitted him about their quality, when he became suddenly enraged, and picked up a poker and attempted to strike her on the head, but was prevented by one of the children. He then began punishing her with his fist, and finally after kicking and beating her for some time, dashed her against the wall and fractured her collar bone. This is one side of the story. The other is that Shown took the shoes home to his wife, who immediately threw them into the fire. Shown then picked up the poker to get them out, his wife attempted to wrench the poker from his grasp, and that if the woman was hurt at all she did it in this tussle, and that Shown did not at any time strike or kick her. But when it is remembered that he was divorced from his former wife for mistreatment, scarcely less brutal, this latter part of the tale sounds rather slim.

Mrs. Shown came to Hartford as soon as she was able to do so and is now with her brother Mr. James Barnett. She has brought suit for a divorce and has had her husband's property attached. Shown came into town Tuesday to give bond that he might be allowed to enter the house, but only a few days ago was his, but failing to give bond he is denied that privilege. Such is the fate of a wife-beater.

Get your holiday meals at the Hartford House. Only 25 cents.

Attention Farmers.

W. E. McFarland's Auction House is the place to sell your tobacco. Selling at auction is growing more popular with farmers every year, more especially since the formation of the Owensboro Tobacco Association, which furnishes protection to both buyer and seller. The law of the Association says that if buyer and seller cannot agree as to whether or not the tobacco comes up to sample sold by, that a reputable by-stander shall re-sample and certify to same, and both samples shall be laid before a reclamation committee, who shall settle the matter. This we think is perfectly fair to both buyer and seller and will cause many to sell their tobacco at auction that never did before. We are prepared to break bid, tobacco, and trust farmers at a distance will give me a liberal patronage, as it has long since been conceded that the Owensboro market is as good as any in the State. Argument is unnecessary. Just watch for prices weekly in this paper.

Rev. J. T. Casebier, of Rockport, Ky., was in the city yesterday on his way home from Berea, Ind. [Owensboro Messenger.]

CROMWELL, KY.

Seeing nothing from this place for some time, it is with pleasure for me to say to the public that after so many years of hard struggles, Cromwell has overcome them all. You can see the farmers coming from all directions of the country, bringing their produce and exchanging for goods. School is progressing nicely at this place, under the management of J. M. Porter.

The Oak Grove school, near this place will close Wednesday night, Dec 22; J. L. Rogers, teacher.

Mrs. Magdalene Rogers, near this place, is very sick. John Annis, who has been sick for sometime, is thought to be worse. Chances are against him.

A large crowd attended the Oak Grove debating society Friday night. Much interest is being manifested in the school and society. R. L. J.

Lost.

Yesterday evening on the streets of Hartford a roll of paper money amounting to forty dollars. Any one finding and returning the same to R. P. Tyro, will be amply rewarded.

BEAVER DAM NOTES.

Mrs. W. F. Long, formerly of this place, died at Rochester Tuesday night. The funeral took place there on Wednesday.

Thomas Blank, ship, came out of your city on last week of Tom. Blank is visiting his brother, W. H. Blank, in ship.

Rev. E. E. Pate, is engaged in an interesting revival at Graham.

Fred. Taylor went on a business trip to Butler county the first of the week.

Mr. J. H. Barnes went to Louisville night returning Tuesday night. He is rumored among the knowing ones that he is serious contemplating making a venture in the millinery business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blankenship gave their daughter, Miss Bertha, a party last Saturday night in honor of her sixteenth birthday. A most enjoyable affair.

The school here is in a flourishing condition under the care of Mr. Stevens and Miss Chapman.

Mr. R. P. Hocker visited Hartford Wednesday.

Tuesday's Courier-Journal says: Jas. C. Bacon, of Madisonville, Ky., and Cleary M. Barnett, of Hartford, Ky., have been appointed United States store-keepers.

The New Circuit Judges.

Yesterday's Courier-Journal contains the following:
"The President sent to the Senate the following nominations: To be United States Circuit Judges as provided by Section 1, Chapter 517, United States Statutes—at large; William L. Putnam, of Maine, for the first Judicial Circuit; Nathaniel Shipman, of Connecticut, for the second; George M. Dallas, of Pennsylvania, for the third; Nathan Goff, of West Virginia, Fourth; William H. Taft, of Ohio, Sixth; William A. Woods, of Indiana, Seventh.

"Warren Turritt, of Oregon, United States District Judge for the District of Alaska.

"The two Democrats are Dallas and Putnam."

Holiday Rates.

On December 24-5 and 31st '91 and January 1, 1892, for the Holidays, the Louisville, St. Louis and Texas and Louisville, Hardinsburg and Western railways will sell excursion tickets at one and one-third fare for the round trip between all their stations, good for return passage until January 4, 1892.

FOR FIRST CLASS BLACKSMITHING

GO TO

J. D. WILLIAMS, BEAVER DAM, KY.

We have a good supply of FRESH Drugs, Groceries and Christmas Goods.

L. H. LEACH & BRO. BEDA, KY.

ANDERSON'S BAZAAR—AND—CHRISTMAS.

This popular store always becomes, if possible, more so about "CHRISTMAS TIME," and this year "SARA & ME" are sparing no pains in trying to supply everybody with a new, nice and useful for Christmas Presents. If you are "looking around" for something of this kind, just "drop into" the Bazaar, our Goods and Prices will do the rest.

As many persons find trouble in deciding what to give as presents that will be appreciated, we would suggest a few of the many articles that are most probably just what you want, viz.: The nice, new Style SILK UMBRELLAS, that anybody will appreciate, and some SMYRNA RUGS, large and medium, and very large FUR RUGS, in White, Grey and Jet Black. These are beauties and cheap at $1.75 and $2.50 for Smyrna, and $3.00 for Fur ones. You should see them. If you want a nice CLOAK, Reeper or Jacket, we have them, and nothing is nicer for a present.

Again, if you want a FUR MUFF or CAPE, we can supply you. See our nice Black Muffs at 50c., and our Black Seal ones at $2.50. Among other things, are nice Windsor Ties for ladies, girls and boys, in both Silk and Satteen, of many styles and colors, and handkerchiefs. We are sure you never saw a prettier lot than we have of all kinds, and we know your friend will gladly accept 1/2 or 1/3 dozen of any we have as a present. We suggest, also, among other nice things, are Fancy Colored Bordered Fringed Towels, Napkins, Doylies, Silk Bows, Ties and Scarfs for girls and boys, Mufflers in Silk and Cashmere, Fancy Hair Pins and Gloves for both ladies and gentlemen.

THE MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Is furnishing some good hints in the way of Christmas presents, also. Be sure to look through it. The fact is, you can't afford to miss investigating the entire situation of affairs at the Bazaar just at this time. Come soon and often.

New Goods will continue to arrive daily, and we want you to call every day, and especially do we wish you to come and bring your friends on next Thursday and Friday. At that time the Bazaar proposes to surprise its most intimate friends and most frequent visitors by a

HOLIDAY FREAK!

So be ready and try to spend a few moments at the Bazaar on the 23d and 24th insts. In the meantime your visits will, as usual, be highly appreciated by
